

GENERAL INFORMATION

PROGRAM

Each week consists of English lessons, activities and one full-day and one half-day excursion. All excursions are booked at the discretion of the School.

SPECIALIST ENGLISH LANGUAGE TUITION OR INTEGRATION

Classes will be assigned depending on language proficiency.

HOMESTAY

Students will live in homestay accommodation for the duration of the course. All meals are provided by the homestay family.

TRANSPORT

In most cases the homestay family will transport the students to and from School. Alternatively, permission may be given for students to travel by public transport if accompanied by another St Paul's student (this is at the discretion of St Paul's School). The costs for transport are met by the homestay family.

AIRPORT PICK-UP AND DROP-OFF

Airport pick-up will be arranged by the School. Details will be forwarded to you on receipt of flight arrival times. Students will be taken to their homestay or to School, depending on the arrival time and the number of students. The School will arrange for airport drop-off when the students are returning home. (This is a free service to Brisbane airport only.)

UNIFORMS

At the start of the program, students will be given two St Paul's School polo shirts which are to be worn to School with neat casual shorts, skirt or trousers. Students should also bring clothing suitable for outdoors, including footwear (eg joggers), a hat and swimming costume.
